Race & Democracy In Focus

Preview our new Cultural Week of Action

Thursday, November 16th, 2023
- Bridge local + national movements to use arts, culture, + creativity to advance racial equity + democracy

- Reinforce the indispensable role for the public sector to support democratic practices + racial equity in collaboration with artists, creatives, + culture bearers

- Activate robust national narratives + local dialogues around issues at the heart of our country’s future
What is the Cultural Week of Action?

- Exact date TBD (September/October 2024)
- Local sites host arts & culture events that advance racial equity and democracy
  - Grant funding to a select number of sites
  - Offer centralized tools and resources
    - Toolkit
    - Media + narrative support
    - Amplification
- National events
- Emphasis on taking concrete action
Draft Timeline

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Oct - Dec</th>
<th>Jan - March</th>
<th>April - Sept</th>
<th>Oct - Dec</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>✔️ Soft launch on 11/16</td>
<td>Public announcement (Jan)</td>
<td>Finalize local + national plans</td>
<td>🌟 First Annual Cultural Week of Action on Race and Democracy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Finalize registration + grant app</td>
<td>Ongoing outreach + engagement</td>
<td>Foster connections between partners</td>
<td>Evaluation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Develop marketing materials</td>
<td>Select grant recipients</td>
<td>Launch comms strategies</td>
<td>Prep for 2025</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>